It is impoſſible to deſcribe the deplorable Situation of the Fens in Lincolnſhire; and this one Inſtance, among many that may be given, will give but a faint Idea of their wretched Condition: At Bourn, laſt Week, a Farmer who had a Farm in Deeping Fen, ſold for Five Shillings only, a Stack of Hay of 140 Load, and a Stack of Oats which grew upon ſixteen Acres of Land; ſo great is the Loſs in Cattle.

Feb. 23. At a Court of Common-Council at Guildhall, London, the 21ſt of February, 1764.

Reſolved, That the Thanks of this Court be preſented to Sir Robert Ladbroke, Knt. Sir Richard Glynn, Bart. William Beckford, Eſq; and the Hon. Thomas Harley, Eſq; the Repreſentatives of this City, for their zealous and ſpirited Endeavours to aſſert the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, by their laudable Attempt to obtain a ſeaſonable and parliamentary Declaration, "That a general Warrant for apprehending and ſeizing the Authors, Printers, and Publiſhers of a ſeditious Libel, together with their Papers, is not warranted by Law." And to expreſs to them our warmeſt Exhortations, that they ſteadily perſevere in their Duty to the Crown, and uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to ſecure the Houſes, Papers, and Perſons of the Subject from arbitary and illegal Violations.

It is ſaid there is an Intention to propoſe a Bill for laying a general Stamp Duty throughout all our American Colonies; but it cannot be thought conſiſtent with the Genius and Spirit of our happy Conſtitution, that any Sett of Men whatever, either at Home or Abroad, ſhould be ſubject to be taxed, without Repreſentatives to aſſent or diſſent to ſuch a Tax.

We hear that an Affair will come upon the Carpet in a few Days, that will make a great Noiſe in the World.

It is rumoured that a Noble Duke of the Minority will ſoon have a conſiderable Employment conferred on him.

Letters from Berlin ſay, that the Hereditary Prince and Princeſs of Brunſwick are expected in that City the Beginning of next Month, and that extraordinary Preparations are making for their Reception.

When the Princeſs of Brunſwick landed at Helvoet, her Royal Highneſs, in a very gracious Manner, returned her Thanks to the Ship's Company for their Care of her: And a Perſon who ſtood near her, ſhe bid, with a Smile, acquaint the King, that during the Paſſage ſhe had behaved like an Engliſhwoman. The Prince had landed ſome Time before, and waiting on Shore to receive her, his Serene Highneſs conducted her on board the Prince of Orange's Yacht; and then walked on Foot to the Brill, great Part of the Way over the Boots in Water, of which he took no Notice, his Attention being employed in viewing the Country.

Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, March 28.

By letters from Auguſta, dated the 20th inſt. we are informed, that no traders had for ſome time arrived there from the country of the Creek Indians, which gave no little uneaſineſs, as they had been long expected. Thoſe letters add, that not a ſingle Creek Indian was then in thoſe parts, not even at Mr. Galphin's, where numbers uſed to be all times.

April 4. Letters from Auguſta, dated the 24th paſt, inform us, that ſome traders who came there that day from the lower Creek towns ſaid, every thing was pretty quiet when they came away; and that Mr. Struthers was arrived from Auguſta, in his way to the upper towns. But,

Letters from Fort Prince-George, in the Lower Cherokees, ſay, that Salloue, or the Young Warrior of Eſtatoe, had given information, that there were then in the Town of Toogaloo a Coweta and an Oakfuſkee warrior, with ſixteen other Creek Indians, one of whom ſaid, "That when he left the Creek nation, the warriors and head-men were aſſembling, in order to concert proper meaſures to fall on the Engliſh. That the ſeven Creeks who murdered the people at Long-Canes were in the nation, where they were protected, ſome of their principals giving out, that it ſhould coſt the Engliſh many ſevens before they ſhould have them;---That they much blamed thoſe ſeven for beginning before their grand project was ready to take place, as they will now be obliged to go in large bodies to attack the ſettlements, the Inhabitants being alarmed, and on their guard." Salloue was much incenſed againſt the Creeks for their inſolent behaviour, he thirſts to have revenge for his countrymen whom they have killed, and is impatient to learn after what manner the Engliſh reſent the late murders. He ſays that ſeveral Cherokees from Old Chote are going home with the Creeks, he believes to join them; and that he ſuſpects ſome of his town alſo, as they careſs the Creeks, and will not quit the town, which he is about to do immediately, with ſeveral others, who are removing their corn, &c. to Eſtatoe, on Keowee river.

This intelligence concerning the Creeks ſeems to agree with what was received ſome time ago from Mobille, viz, "That the moſt intelligent men, converſant in Indian affairs, had informed the commanding officer that the Indians intended miſchief againſt this province and Georgia, of which notice was given to both governments."

We hear a propoſal has been made by this government, that the Creek trade might be ſtopped from the four ſouthern colonies, which has not been concurred in.

We are told application has been made to Capt. Prevoſt, commanding officer of the three companies of the Royal American Regiment, now in this province, to ſtation all the ſoldiers that can be ſpared from garriſon duty, upon that part of the frontiers moſt likely to be attacked.

By a veſſel from Mobille in ſeventeen days we learn, that the Druid ſloop of war, appointed for the Weſt-Florida ſtation, was arrived there from Jamaica. Another ſloop appointed for the ſame ſtation was arrived at Penſacola from England. His Excellency George Johnſtone, Eſq; governor of Weſt-Florida, was daily expected out in another man of war, which was getting ready with all expedition when the laſt ſailed. They had received no accounts at Mobille from the Creek country, ſince the arrival of the traders who fled for fear of being killed by thoſe Indians.

April. 11. On the firſt inſtant the traders and packhorſes, which had been ſo long expected from the Creek-country, arrived at Auguſta. With them came about twenty Creek Indians, among whom are the Handſome-Fellow, and ſome other head-men. All the ſervants and traders in the nation, except thoſe belonging to one gentleman, fled to Penſacola, Mobille, or the Chickeſaw-country; but were all brought back by the Indians; and when the laſt accounts came away, were peaceably ſettled again in their ſtores and trading-houſes, which had been pretty well cleared during their abſence. The Indians are much in want of goods, and are in great fear of having the trade withdrawn from them, and appear very peaceable. However they ſay not a word of giving ſatisfaction for the murders they have committed; but mention ſome of their countrymen, which they ſay were killed about fifty years ago! in the Cherokee Country, by the white people, and for which they never had any ſatisfaction.

L O N D O N, January 21.

The Spaniſh Miniſtry are not a little jealous of the accounts daily received, relating to the plan purſued by the Court of England, in ſettling Florida, which they have always looked upon as commanding the navigation of the gulph of that name; in conſequence of which orders have been diſpatched to all the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies, to prohibit trading with the Engliſh of that province, under the ſevereſt penalties.

Feb. 13. By a gentleman from Thorney we are informed, that notwithſtanding the greateſt aſſiduity uſed in ſtrengthening and ſupporting the bank from Guyhorn to Clow Croſs, it is greatly feared that it cannot be made to reſiſt the impetuoſity of the waters in Wiſbich and Thorney fens much longer, in the loweſt parts of which the water is now at leaſt ſix feet deep, and continues to riſe; ſhould the wind blow ſtrong at N. W. it will raiſe the water at leaſt two feet higher againſt the ſaid bank, which muſt inevitably beat it down. If this bank ſhould blow up, it will lay more than 35000 acres of land ſix feet under water. The repairs of the above bank have already coſt upwards of 1000 l.

The inundation cauſed by the breach in the bank between Cowbett and Handkerchief-hall, has laid all South Holland in the county of Lincoln, and parts contiguous, containing at leaſt 200,000 acres of land, more than four feet under water; the loſs ſuſtained thereby cannot be leſs than 150,000 l. ſhould the ſame become dry by Michaelmas next, which there is very little probability of.

Extract of a letter from Peterſburgh, Jan. 10.

"For ſome weeks paſt there have been almoſt continual feſtivals at our court. Yeſterday was repreſented on the New Theatre an opera, entituled, Charles the Great, in which one of the actreſſes performed a cantata in praiſe of the Empreſs. Thus you ſee this country becomes every day more and more polite. The great encouragement given to learned and ingenious men from all parts, will undoubtedly contribute to ſet us on a level with the moſt poliſhed nations of Europe, and under an Empreſs, who makes the good of her ſubjects ſo much her care, we may not only expect to grow polite, but, in proportion as the arts flow in upon us, likewiſe to become a happier and greater people."

Feb. 20. They write from Paris, that the Seine has riſen by the late rains, one and twenty feet above its uſual heights, and has overflowed its banks in ſeveral parts.

The river Tiber has lately overflowed its banks, and done incredible damage to the adjacent countries, by laying them under water.

Extract of a letter from Ilfracombe, Jan. 27.

"The weather has been for theſe two months more tempeſtuous than the oldeſt man here can remember. I have been an inhabitant in and near this place almoſt ſixty years, but cannot recollect any gales of wind to have been ſo great and variable as lately. Not leſs than thirty ſail have been loſt, and every man periſhed, on this coaſt, and four more have ſhared the ſame fate on the Welſh ſhore. Our boats are daily towing in ſomething or other in diſtreſs; and yeſterday when the weather cleared up, one of them fortunately fell in with his Majeſty's ſloop of war the Ranger, who four days before had loſt, off Cape Cornwall, her foremaſt, bowſprit, main topmaſt, and one man, and was other ways in ſuch diſtreſs, as nothing but the wonderful interpoſition of Providence could have ſaved either ſhip or lives; for according to their accounts, they had been four days and four nights cloſe on certain death, by being drove ſo near an iron-bound lee ſhore, as to have nothing left for their preſervation but the uncertain dependance of anchors and cables, two of which they loſt; and had they not providentially met with one of our boats, which towed her in, ſhe, in all human probability, muſt, in the violent ſtorm that blew laſt night, have parted from her only one, and before morning been no more; but thanks be to God, we have the great pleaſure of ſeeing her ſafe in this port, and an inſtance of the mercies of the Almighty, without whoſe permiſſion not a hair of man ſhall periſh."

On Saturday ſe'nnight was found dead in her bed (as ſuppoſed) thro' want of common neceſſaries, Mrs. Iſma Ruſſel, relict of -----Ruſſel, Eſq; of Lincoln's Inn. She was daughter of----- Crawley, Eſq; of the kingdom of Ireland, and grand-daughter to Lord Viſcount Fitzwilliams of Merion, being a couſin-german half removed to the late Lord of that name, and very cloſely allied in blood to many illuſtrious perſonages of this kingdom, but not half ſo ennobled by birth as by conſpicuous and heroic virtue; ſhe patiently receiving from the greater part of her relations, a denial of the very common ſcraps a beggar claims, and is uſually thrown to the dogs. She died neglected, without a ſecond ſheet, a ſecond ſhift, a ſecond gown or handkerchief, having pledged a handkerchief a few days before for one ſhilling, of which ſum five half-pence remained. As ſhe had lived many years in extreme poverty, preſerving ſtill the gentlewoman, ſo ſhe died in the 77th year of her age, reſpected by God's ſpecial friends, the Poor, and was buried by them at St. Pancras, in a decent manner.

The Weſt country barges have begun to work, the floods having ſubſided in the Thames up the country.

Edinburgh, Feb. 13. Friday night laſt we had here a moſt violent ſtorm of wind and rain. A high dyke at Cannon-mills was blown down, and fell upon ſome low adjacent houſes, but happily did no great damage. Some low houſes there were ſo filled with water, that the inhabitants durſt not venture to ſleep in their beds. The weather has ever ſince continued very boiſterous, the conſequences of which are much dreaded.

St. James's, Feb. 21. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Hon. John Manners, Eſq; commonly called the Marquis of Granby, to be Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Derby, in the Room of his Grace William Duke of Devonſhire.

W I L L I A M S B U R G, April 6.

By a gentleman from up the country, we learn that a party of Indians had lately attacked the plantation of an old man on the frontiers of this colony, who was at the time at Stanton in Auguſta county: They robbed the houſe of about 1500 l. in ſpecie, and tore in pieces a conſiderable quantity of paper currency; carried away his ſon, and 4 Negroes; and tomahawked and ſcalped his wife, who ſtill ſurvives, but in a miſerable condition.

B O S T O N, April 23,

Tueſday laſt the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD came to Town from the Eaſtward: His ill State of Health has not yet permited him to preach.

Laſt Thurſday Night we had here a ſevere Storm of Wind and Rain, at which Time the Tide roſe higher than has been known for ſeveral Years, and has done much Damage, by waſhing away large Quantities of Wood and Lumber from off the Wharffs, and entering the lower Part of divers Stores, and deſtroying Sugar, Salt, and Flour, and other Things, to a conſiderable Value.

We hear that great Damage has alſo been done by the above Storm in ſeveral of the neighbouring Sea Port Towns, particularly at Plymouth, where it is ſaid the Loſs ſuſtained thereby amounts to between 3 and 4000 l. Sterling.

Extract of a Letter from Charleſtown, in S. Carolina, March 20.

"The Creek Indians having ſuſpended Hoſtilities, many People flatter themſelves, that the Meaſures taken in that Affair have had the deſired Effect, and that thoſe Indians begin to be ſenſible of their Folly in quarrelling with their beſt Friends."

N E W P O R T, April 23.

Laſt Thurſday Night the Houſe of Mr. Samuel Maryott, of Portſmouth, together with near all his Furniture, the Family's wearing Apparel, &c. were conſumed by Fire. It being a ſtormy Night, added much to the Diſtreſs of ſo calamitous an Event; and it was not without ſome Difficulty Mr. Maryott ſaved his Children from the Flames----The Fire occaſioned by a Defect in the Chimney.

A Child of between five and ſix Years of Age, Son of Capt. Edward Church, was laſt Thurſday, at the lower End of Thames-Street, unfortunately run over by a Pair of Trucks, by which it was ſo much bruiſed, that it died the Evening of the Day following.

N E W - Y O R K, April 30.

On Tueſday Night laſt arrived an Expreſs to his Excellency General Gage, with Advices from Detroit, the Particulars of which have not yet been communicated.---We learn from private Hands, that on the 25th of laſt Month, the Indians, poſted near Detroit, had ſuddenly deſtroyed their Huts, removed their Women, Children and Effects, called their Warriors together, ſome ſay to the Number of 2000, and were marched off; that their Rout and Deſigns were unknown, ſome ſuppoſed they were gone to the carrying-Place at Niagara, to cut off our Communication, others that they intended to beſiege Detroit, which is well provided with all Neceſſaries for its Defence, and therefore is in no immediate Danger.

We hear from Elizabeth Town, that Alderman Stites was ſtill alive Wedneſday Morning laſt, many Shot had been extracted, and there were ſome Hopes of his Recovery.

About One o'Clock laſt Thurſday Morning Capt. Killgour, in a Sloop from Philadelphia for this Port, run on the South Side of Coney-Iſland; and it is feared the Veſſel and Part of the Cargo will be loſt.

P H I L A D E L P H I A, May 3.

Extract of a Letter from Stanton, in Auguſta County, Virginia, March 30, 1764.

"The People of theſe Parts are very much alarmed at ſome late Incurſions of the Indians in the Weſtern Part of this County. On the 20th Inſtant a Number of them came to the Houſe of one David Cloyd (a wealthy Planter, living on ſome of the Waters of James River, not far from Looney's Ferry) and killed one of his Sons, tomahawked his Wife, plundered his Houſe, and took away above Seven Hundred Pounds in Caſh, beſides ſundry valuable Effects. Mrs. Cloyd, notwithſtanding ſhe is an antient Woman, and was very much hacked and mangled, is recovered, and ſays, the Number of Indians was ten. Mr. Cloyd, and one of his Sons, were then in this Town, it being Court Time, and moſt of the Family from home. It is remarkable, that this Houſe is a good Way within the Settlements, and yet the Enemy found Means to convey themſelves undiſcovered. But it is ſaid that ſome other Families are miſſing, which it is ſuppoſed they carried off in their Return.

"P. S. Juſt as I had finiſhed writing this Account, there came Advice, that a Party of White-men purſued and came up with ſome of the Indians, killed one of them, and recovered One Hundred and Fifty Pounds of the Caſh, all the heavy Baggage, and four Negroes, whom they had Priſoners."

In another Letter from the ſame Place, dated the 18th of April, it is ſaid, that on the Saturday before, a Woman, and three Children, were carried off by the Enemy from the Calf Paſture, about 20 miles from Stanton, which is the neareſt to that Town of any Damage done this or the laſt War.

By Letters from Carliſle, received ſince our laſt, we learn, that the Troops which went to eſcort a Quantity of Proviſions to Fort Pitt, were returned, having accompliſhed that Service, without ſeeing an Indian, either going or coming back: That the Garriſon of that Place were all in good Health, and high Spirits, being well provided with all Neceſſaries, and not under any Apprehenſions from the Savages: But that on the 21ſt ult. in the Afternoon, one John M'Leliand, who had formerly lived at Juniata, and being then there, diſcovered a Party of Indians, which he reckoned to be not leſs than Thirty, and ſaw two or three of them lay down their Budgets, deſigning, as he apprehended, to purſue him, upon which he made the beſt of his Way off, and eſcaped: And that there were three other Men out in theſe Parts, who ſaw the Tracks of the Enemy, ſuppoſed them to be about Forty, and ſeemed to be directing their Courſe towards Carliſle---That upon this Information Colonel Armſtrong ordered Captain Lindſay, with a ſtrong Party, to range in the Valleys, and endeavour to fall in with the Indians, while other Parties were employed in ranging along the Foot of the Mountain; ſo that it was thought ſcarcely probable the Savages could get in among the Inhabitants, without meeting with our Men: But that many of the People, however, near the Foot of the Mountain, had moved lower down; and that the Diſtreſs and Confuſion this Party occaſioned on the Frontiers, at this Seaſon, was very great, as they were about putting in their Spring Crops.

In Queen-ſtreet, near the Court-Houſe, in Lancaſter,
SUNDRY Medicines, Chemical and Galenical, eſpecially ſuch as ſuit the Demands of the Country People, and on the loweſt Terms, by Retail. †

WILLIAM STEUART's Reſtorative Balſam,
EXtracted by Means of Chymiſtry, from the fineſt Vegetable Reſtoratives, and pureſt natural Balſams; and contains in a ſmall Doſe, the eſſential and moſt fragrant Parts and Virtues of thoſe Vegetables from which the Milk of the Aſs and Goat derive their nourihing and balſamic Properties.

Some of the moſt celebrated Phyſicians in England have made Trial of this Medicine in their own Practice, and highly approve of it as a moſt excellent Pectoral and Balſamic.

In Colds, Coughs, Phthiſick, and Aſthmas, and in Diſorders of the Breaſt, ariſing originally, from catching Cold, and where the Lungs are oppreſſed with viſcid Phlegm, this has been found to be a moſt uſeful Medicine; and what no Family at a Diſtance from a Doctor, ought to be without.

In the Beginning of Conſumptions, and likewiſe where this Diſeaſe is already formed, and all internal Ulcers, Decays, and Weakneſſes, it will be highly proper and ſerviceable. It is likewiſe of excellent Uſe in Stitches, Pains of the Side and Back, and in long and obſtinate Cholics, proceeding from viſcid Matter, lodged in the Bowels. It cleanſes the Kidnies, and expels the Gravel; warms, invigorates and reſtores a decayed Conſtitution, and is a real Friend to the Nerves, ſtrengthening the whole nervous Syſtem.

In hypocondriacal and hyſterical Diſorders, and Lowneſs of the Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, and fainting Fits, it often gives immediate Relief.

It is quite an innocent, ſafe and pleaſant Medicine, and ſo eaſy to take, that no Objection can be made to the Taſte of it, a few Drops of it put into a Glaſs of Water will immediately convert the Water into the Colour of Milk, and makes a moſt agreeable white Emulſion, or medicinal Milk. It may be given to a Child of a Month old, and will often be found to be of infinite Uſe in ſome of thoſe Diſorders to which young Children are ſo often liable, ſuch as Convulſions, Gripings or Pains in the Belly, windy Diſorders, and the Hooping-Cough. The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

By the Harriot Packet, Captain Robinſon, arrived at New-York from Falmouth, we have the following Advices.

RATISBON, February 9.

THE affair of the fraternity at Prague, has had no conſequences. The perſons that were taken up, have been all diſcharged; and as to the diſturbances in Tranſylvania, we hear nothing further of them.

Marſeilles, Feb. 3. The differences between our nation and the Regency of Algiers, have been happily ſettled by the means of the Chevalier de Fabry, Commodore of the King's ſquadron, and the Sieur Valliere, our Conſul. This news was brought by a tartan diſpatched from thence on purpoſe the 22d ult. the Captain of which gives the following account. The Chevalier Fabry continued cruizing on the coaſts of Barbary till he was joined by the Chimere frigate, who brought the final inſtructions from his Court. In conſequence of which M. Fabry came before Algiers the 8th ult. with the ſhips and frigates of his diviſion, who were ſaluted immediately by the garriſon with 21 guns, which was returned by the ſquadron. The Sieur Valliere, accompanied by the Captain of the Port of Algiers, came on board the Chevalier de Fabry's ſhip, and on his arrival was ſaluted with five guns from one of the caſtles. This honour, never before ſhewn to any Conſul, was paid to that of France, as a particular mark of diſtinction, by which the Dey would efface the impreſſions made on the Publick by what had paſſed before. The Chev. Fabry went on ſhore the 10th, in order to have his firſt audience of the Dey, who received him with great diſtinction, and ſeemed ſincerely diſpoſed to ſettle matters amicably. The Dey himſelf told the French Commodore, that he had given orders for reſtoring the French Conſul to his privileges, for diſcharging all the French taken into cuſtody, and taking off the attachment laid on the effects of the African company. M. de Fabry had afterwards ſeveral conferences with the Dey, in preſence of the whole Divan, in which were diſcuſſed the grievances of France, and the claims of Algiers. We know not the particulars of theſe conferences; only, that every thing was ſettled to mutual ſatisfaction, and that a convention was ſigned to obviate all future diſputes between the two nations, and to ſecure the trade and navigation of France in all the ports of that Regency. The African company are expreſſly reſtored to all their privileges. Whilſt M. de Fabry ſtaid at Algiers, great marks of diſtinction were ſhewn him by the Dey, who ſent him and the Conſul daily all ſorts of proviſions, and he made him a preſent of two lions and two tigers. Fabry left Algiers the 19th, and ſteered for the Straits.

Conſtantinople, Jan. 2. Upon the remonſtrances made by his Britannick Majeſty's Ambaſſador, jointly with the other foreign miniſters reſiding at the Porte, againſt the uncivilized and inhuman behaviour of the Turkiſh officers, in countenancing rather than reſtraining the mob in the barbarous ſcenes of rapine and outrage committed by them during the late dreadful fire at Smyrna; the Grand Signior expreſſed very high diſpleaſure againſt the authors and abettors of thoſe proceedings, ſo contrary to ancient privileges, ſo repugnant to hoſpitality, and ſo totally inconſiſtent with the good faith and friendſhip ſubſiſting of old between the Crown of Great Britain and the Ottoman Porte; and an officer of diſtinction was ordered immediately to repair to Smyrna, bearing an Imperial command, directing all poſſible means to be uſed for diſcovering the offenders, and puniſhing them in an exemplary manner, according to the degree of their offence, and ordering the plundered effects, as far as they could be diſtinguiſhed and known, to be reſtored to the unhappy ſufferers. Though the Imperial command has not perhaps, in this reſpect, produced all the effect that could be wiſhed, yet as the Grand Signior has ordered it to be regiſtered in the proper offices, to ſerve as a ſtanding rule, and a public manifeſtation of his pleaſure, and to be rigorouſly maintained and obſerved as ſuch, there is no doubt of its producing very ſalutary conſequences, if ever, in future times, the like calamity ſhould again befal that unhappy city.

Ratiſbon, Feb. 10. The departure of the Emperor for Francfort is fixed for the 11th of next month. His Imperial Majeſty will be 12 days on his journey, and is to be ſupplied at every ſtation with 467 horſes. His ſuits will conſiſt of 65 coaches, and other carriages.

Paris, Feb. 18. In the remonſtrances which the Parliament of Toulouſe have preſented to the King, about the violent proceedings againſt the Parliament of Grenoble, is the following paſſage:

"The principle of monarchy is corrupted, when force protects thoſe that are amenable to juſtice; when zeal for the ſtate is looked upon as a crime towards the Sovereign. The principle of monarchy is ſtill more corrupted, when honour is ſet in contraſt with honours, and men may be at the ſame time covered with infamy and dignities; when ſouls, ſingularly puſillanimous, are vain of the grandeur they derive from ſervility, and think that every thing they owe to the Prince, cancels all that they owe to their Country.

"Theſe, Sire, are the maxims that ſome people are endeavouring to get into vogue, and which have already taken root in too many hearts. Mad men, who think to ſerve the Monarch, by ſubverting the Monarchy; who boaſt of finding the ſhort and eaſy road to arbitary power, without thinking it leads to deſtruction! What dyke ſhall ſtop this torrent, ready to overflow every thing, if force is from henceforth to be looked upon as the ſole law of the State? If honour, fidelity, liberty, are but barren names, made to yield to the caprices of a local Deſpot; if even the fundamental laws may, with impunity, be violated by an audacious ſubject, equally guilty, whether he pretends to have orders deſtructive of theſe laws, or has fruſtrated your Majeſty of the moſt glorious prerogative of Monarchs, which conſiſts in not being able to exact from their ſubjects a criminal obedience, when, by a dire effect of impoſing upon their love of juſtice, their will runs counter to the intereſt of their authority."

Hague, Feb. 20. By letters from Warſaw, dated the 9th ult. we learn, that the election of a King of Poland will not take place till the month of Auguſt next. According to the Poliſh conſtitution, there muſt be an extraordinary diet held firſt, and the Primate, for his own advantage, will prolong the Interregnum as long as he can; if the election be made within twelve months from the King's death, it is all the Pacta Conventa require.

Turin, Feb. 15. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York is arrived in this capital in perfect health. Notwithſtanding his wiſhes to maintain a private character, it was impoſſible to avoid his being received at Alexandria and Aſti, the two chief towns through which his Royal Highneſs paſſed, with all poſſible marks of reſpect and diſtinction. At ſome diſtance from the firſt, the Commandant met him with two coaches and ſix, complimented him in the name of the King, and conducted him to the Governor's houſe (he being abſent upon account of his health) where his Royal Highneſs was received by the Officers of the garriſon, and chief Nobility of the place, and entertained magnificently. In entering the town, he was ſaluted with thirty diſcharges of cannon, the guard at the gate preſented their arms, and the Officer ſaluted him; a Captain's guard was mounted, and all other honours paid him in proportion. During his Royal Highneſs's ſtay at Alexandria, he deſired to ſee the citadel, which his Sardinian Majeſty has rendered a complete work, at a great expence. Upon his Royal Highneſs's departure, he was ſaluted with the ſame number of cannon, and received the ſame honours at the gate as at his entrance. At Aſti, he met with the ſame treatment. At the firſt poſt from Turin, he was met by the Maſter of the Ceremonies, and his Deputy, in two of his Sardinian Majeſty's coaches, and conducted to the Palace prepared for his reception on Sunday laſt at noon, and ſoon after complimented on his ſafe arrival, on the part of the King, the Duke of Savoy, and the reſt of the Royal Family.

The Foreign Miniſters at this Court went in a body to pay their reſpects to his Royal Highneſs, who was conducted to Court by the Maſter of the Ceremonies and his Deputy, in two of his Sardinian Majeſty's coaches, attended by Mr. Pitt, Sir William Boothby, and Colonel St. John. At the foot of a private ſtaircaſe, which leads to a part of the palace, he was met by the ſame Gentleman of the Bedchamber, who had complimented him in the name of his Sardinian Majeſty, and in a gallery, at the head of the ſtairs, by the Grand Chambellan, who conducted his Royal Highneſs to an apartment, where he was received by the King of Sardinia, the Duke of Chablais, and the Prince of Piedmont, the Duke of Savoy being confined to his room by the remains of a fever and cold, which has not yet left him. After ſome converſation with his Sardinian Majeſty, his Royal Highneſs was conducted by the Duke of Chablais, and Prince of Piedmont, to the Duke and Dutcheſs of Savoy's apartments, where his Royal Highneſs was received by the reſt of the Princes and Princeſſes of this Royal Family. After this ceremony, his Royal Highneſs returned in the ſame manner to the apartment where he had left the King, and was reconducted home from thence in the ſame coaches.

From the cordial friendſhip which exiſts between the two Courts, it is eaſy to conceive with what warmth of regard his Royal Highneſs was received by his Sardinian Majeſty and his Family, of which he continues to experience every teſtimony, by every poſſible mark of attention and eſteem that can be ſhewn him; and his Royal Highneſs, on his part, returns it in a manner which has already procured him the ſincere affection of the whole Court. Immediately upon his Royal Highneſs's return, he was waited upon by the Prince of Carignan and his ſon, and the next day by the Great Officers, the Miniſters of State, the Knights of the Order of the Annunciation, and thoſe about the Court, who are of the ſame rank. His Royal Highneſs then viſited the Prince and Princeſs of Carignan, as Earl of Ulſter, and continues to preſerve his private character.

Yeſterday they made their entry, on which occaſion they were received with firing of cannon, and with the acclamations of the people, the troops being alſo under arms. The Duke, the Dutcheſs, Prince Ferdinand, and the whole Court received the Princeſs with every mark of tenderneſs and reſpect. It is thought that their Highneſſes will continue here ſome weeks.

The Ruſſian Miniſter at Warſaw has received a letter from the Czarina's Reſident at Conſtantinople, importing, that the Grand Sultan had declared that he had adopted the views of the Courts of Peterſburgh and Berlin, relative to the affairs of Poland; that is to ſay, to leave the Poles at full liberty to chooſe a King from among themſelves. There is reaſon, however, to beleive that there is a party in that kingdom, which favours the Houſe of Saxony. Preparations are making at Warſaw, as if a Saxon Prince was ſoon expected there.

During their ſtay here, they had ſome conferences with the Governor and Council; and the intent of their journey, we are told, was to ſolicit a trade from Virginia, the path from Carolina to their Country, they ſay, being ſpoiled by the Creeks, who have killed ſeveral of their people; that they are therefore determined to go to war againſt them, and would be glad to be aſſiſted by their brothers the Engliſh, ſeveral of whom have lately been murdered by the Creeks alſo.

Two Days ago, Capt. Montour arrived with ſome of his Party at Johnſon-Hall, brought the Scalp, &c. taken ſome Time ſince. The Indian ſcalped, was a Head Warrior, Nephew to the Squaſh-Cutter, a Chief of the Delawares. Capt. Montour brought with him likewiſe, a lad named Emanuel Stover, of Rariton, New-Jerſey, taken laſt Year at Wioming, with 6 others, by the Delawares; and a Delaware who went to Johnſon-Hall, on the 20th Inſtant, under ſome ſpecious Pretences, was, on Diſcovery of his Villanies, apprehended. PHILADELPHIA, May 10.

On Monday next the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province meets here.

Our other Advices by the Packet are, that a Scheme of Taxation of the American Colonies has for ſome Time been in Agitation: That it had been previouſly debated in the Parliament, whether they had Power to lay ſuch a Tax on Colonies which had no Repreſentatives in Parliament, and determined in the Affirmative: That on the Ninth of March Mr. ---------- made a long Harrangue on the melancholy State of the Nation, overloaded with heavy Taxes, and a Debt of 146 Millions, 52 Millions of which had ariſen in the four laſt Years: That by a Computation, which he laid before the Houſe, 360,000 l. Sterling per Annum was expended on North-America, and therefore it was but reaſonable they ſhould ſupport the Troops ſent out for their Defence, and all the other Expence of the Nation on their Account. To raiſe this Sum, he propoſed that the Drawbacks on Re-exportation of particular Goods ſhould be diſcontinued: That a Duty ſhould be laid on Eaſt-India Goods; a Duty of 7 l. Sterling per Ton on all Wines from Madeira, the Weſtern and Canary Iſles; a Duty of 3 d. per Gallon on foreign Melaſſes, of 10 s. per Hundred on Sugars; a high Duty on Coffee, Cocoa, &c. and that Rum ſhould be wholly prohibited: That Wines from Spain, Portugal, &c. firſt landed in England, before ſent to America, ſhould have the Duty drawn back. Beſides this, an internal Tax was propoſed, a Stamp Duty, &c. but many Members warmly oppoſing it, this was deferred till next Seſſion; but it was feared that the Tax upon foreign Goods would paſs into a Law this Seſſion. That theſe Colonies are under great Diſadvantages, in not having ſufficient Intereſt in Parliament; from the Want of which, the Weſt-Indians have been able to carry any Point againſt them.---Only, that Mr. Allen, of this Place, was indefatigable, in remonſtrating to many of the Members, with whom he was acquainted, on the Illegality of an internal Tax, and had conſiderable Influence in preventing it.

FORT PITT, April 26, 1764.

Extracts from the Examination of GERSHOM HICKS, (a White Man) lately with the Indians, who came in here the 14th Inſtant as a Spy, taken at ſeveral different times.

THAT an Engliſh Army was expected by the Indians down the Ohio this Spring. That he left Hockhocking about 30 Days ago, in Company with 7 Delaware Indians, to go to War on the Frontiers. That they came in upon Shearman's Valley, murdered and ſcalped one James and his Wife, and took two little Boys, their Children, Priſoners. That they came with the Children within a few Miles of this Poſt, when he was deſired to come in here, under Pretence he had made his Eſcape from the Indians, and to enquire into the Strength of the Fort, Ammunition, Proviſions, &c. what Guards were out each Day, and to return to them in two Nights; and that if he met with any Indians, not to let them know any thing till he got to King Beaver. That the Night they came here a Party of 8 Shawaneſe came to their Sleeping Place, and had two Scalps, which they got between Ligonier and Bedford. That there were three Parties of Indians from the Salt Licks, Hockhocking, and Wackatomocky, conſiſting of 9, 10, and 13; and one Party of 30, from Sciota, to ſet off for this Fort a few Days after him, and that he does believe they are about this Fort now. That about the latter End of this Month 40 Wyondots, and 100 Ottowaws, were to ſet out for this Poſt; that their Parties were to Way-lay the Communication. That in May the Wyondots, Ottowaws, Delawares and Shawaneſe, in all about 300, were to come and attack this Poſt, and to keep all in a Body; and ſhould they fail here, to proceed and attack Ligonier and Bedford, which were not ſo ſtrong as this. That laſt Winter two Delaware Chiefs, and White Eyes with them, went down to the large French Stone Fort, on the Miſſiſippi, and took three Engliſh Scalps, and aſked Aſſiſtance from the French to carry on the War againſt us. That they found both French and Engliſh in the Fort. That the Commanding Officer, a Frenchman, would not hear them, and ordered the Scalps to be thrown out of Doors; and gave them ſome Flints and Powder, and ordered them to return: But that they went to ſome French People, called Out-laying French, that live along the Miſſiſippi, and are great Traders with the Indians for Ammunition, &c. one of which had 4 or 500 Barrels of Powder, and Lead in Proportion. That White Eyes purchaſed of him nine Horſe Loads; but in returning, thro' the Badneſs of the Weather, they loſt great Part of it. And that they entered into an Agreement with three Traders, to ſend up to Sciota, before the Firſt of May, 12 Batteaus of Powder, Lead, &c. and that they would ſend their Canoes, loaded with Proviſions, to meet them, and that he is of Opinion they are there by this time. And that about the latter Part of the Summer, they are to ſend the Indians 12 Batteaus more. And they are to pay them with the Skins and Furs taken from our Traders in their Towns. But ſhould this fail (which he thinks not at all probable) they will attack us with Bows and Arrows. And that the firſt Batteaus were to furniſh the Indians with two Frenchmen Gunſmiths. That White Eyes viſited ſome Indians on the Miſſiſippi, from whom he aſked Aſſiſtance againſt the Engliſh, to which they conſented, ſaying, the White Men ſhould not live on the Miſſiſippi; that they would join in Bodies, and lay on all the narrow Paſſages on the River, and attack our Boats and Troops as they paſſed. That theſe Indians are very numerous, known by the Names of Cattahoos, Caweetoos, Warſhaes, and another Nation, which he does not remember. That the Wyondots, Ottowaws, Delawares and Shawaneſe, with their Chiefs, intended to come here, under Pretence for a Peace, to watch an Opportunity to get into the Fort, and murder every Soul. But if they miſcarried, they would fight their Way to the Lakes, from thence to the Miſſiſippi, and join the above Tribes. And finally, that they ſent Deputies to the Six Nations to join, who treated them with Contempt, told them to fight for themſelves, and called them Women; which ſo much diſguſted them, that they ſometimes threatened to go to War againſt them."

By the Brig Olive Branch, Captain Robertſon, from Honduras Bay, we have Advice, that the Spaniards had forbid the Engliſh from cutting Wood in the Bay; upon which they had ſent an Expreſs to Jamaica for Aſſiſtance. The following is a Tranſlation of a Letter from the Spaniſh General, to the Commanding Officer in the Bay.

SIR,

THE King my Maſter having appointed me to the employment of Governor and Captain General of this Province, with eſpecial Order to comply entirely with what his Majeſty granted to the Crown of England, and ſtipulated in the 17th Article of the Definitive Treaty of Peace, ſigned at Paris the 10th Day of February of this Year; commanding me likewiſe, that, with all poſſible Diſpatch, I ſhould proceed on my Voyage, which I could not do ſo ſoon as I deſired, for various Diſappointments which happened. I arrived at Campechy the 7th Inſtant, and having taken Poſſeſſion the 24th, I was informed of your Arrival at Balis in the Month of April, alſo five Veſſels, and that immediately the People were diſperſed as far as Rio Hondo, practiſing from that Time the cutting of Logwood, by Virtue of the Treaty of Peace. You did not preſent the Royal Schedule that my Sovereign expedited for this End, nor the Licence of the King of England for the aforeſaid Effect.

This being granted, I am obliged by the King my Lord, in his Royal Confidence of the Government of this Province, and to comply entirely with the ſaid 17th Article of the Definitive Treaty of Peace, as I ſaid before, to diſpatch the Commandant of the Fort of Bacalar, Don Joſeph Roſado, with this, requiring you, that in Conſideration of the Want of Inſtruments for your Introduction, and having extended yourſelves, gathering Fruits as in your own Country, without waiting to ſettle the Limits with the neceſſary Solemnity that ſhould have ſecured your Eſtabliſhment, you will be pleaſed, with all ſpeed, to give the neceſſary Advice to all your Community that are in Rio Hondo, to retire to Balis, and I expect you will preſent me with the Royal Schedule, that the King my Maſter diſpatched to this End, or with Orders from the King of Great-Britain for this Effect; and there is no Doubt but I ſhall then attend to it with that Care and Equity I am commanded, iſſuing for that Purpoſe the neceſſary Orders to all the Commandants, Cabos, Military and Juſticiary of all the Diſtricts in their Juriſdiction, by which Means the Suſpicion of the fatal Conſequences will ceaſe, which will be inevitable if ſuch Conduct is continued, ſufficient to deſtroy the good Harmony between the two Nations, and happy Tranquility that we enjoy; if the Remedy is not occurred to in time, and our Sovereigns will manifeſtly ſee how we intereſt ourſelves, that their juſt and laudable Intentions take Effect, for which I am ſo ready on my Part, as is manifeſt by my Toleration, that you and all your Nation remain at Balis, and I promiſe myſelf the ſame on your Parts, proteſting always, that for the Reſult of what may happen by ſuch irregular Introduction and Exceſs of cutting Logwood, thoſe who commit, or do not remedy, them, will be reſponſible after all. I hope you will favour me with an Anſwer by hand of the ſaid Commandant of Bacalar, and other Commands moſt to your Satisfaction, to manifeſt to you the Deſire I have to ſerve you. God guard you many Years, as he can, and I deſire.

Your moſt humble Servant kiſſes your Hands,

PHILIPE REMIRES DE ESTINOS.

Merida in Jucatan, 29th December, 1763.

Sir DON JOSEPH MAUD.

DON JOSEPH ROSADO, Lieutenant of Infantry in the Battalion of Caſtilia, and Commandant of this Garriſon and royal Fort of St. Philip, of Bacalar, and its Juriſdiction.

NOtwithſtanding that the Serjeant Dioniſius Chavaria, who is detatched to the Look-Out of St. Anthony, has the neceſſary Orders, that the Engliſh Logwood-Cutters of Rio Hondo, do retreat to Balis, without permitting them to make any Demur, becauſe that ſince the 4th Inſtant, when the Order of the Governor and Captain General, was by me intimated to them, they have had competent Time to evacuate the River, carrying away the Utenſils of their Houſes: I order and command the ſaid Serjeant, that he receive 11 Soldiers of this Garriſon, well armed, which, with 4 there before, compleats the Number of 15, to remain at the ſaid Look-Out; that with them he is not to permit any Engliſh Veſſel, under any Pretext, to enter the Mouth of this River; on the Contrary, if any Flats remain in the River, they are to go out, with the Utenſils of their Houſes, with ſo much Brevity, as not to permit them to ſtop any where, but retire totally; as likewiſe thoſe from the New-River, becauſe in the Order intimated to them, it is expreſſed, that the Retreat ſhall be to Balis, and no other Part; and to act on the Contrary, they expoſe themſelves to evident Danger, as by their Diſobedience they loſe their Negroes, and find themſelves under a violent Arreſt. This Order he ſhall manifeſt to as many as are not yet gone out, that by this Means it arrive at the Notice of all the Baymen, and at no Time they may plead Ignorance. And all that is done on the Subject by the ſaid Serjeant, he ſhall give me punctual Advice; as alſo of what may occur, to adviſe his Excellency the Governor and Captain General, from whom I have Orders to execute what may be needful, in caſe of Contumacy, Diſobedience or Rebellion, laying to the Charge of the Baymen, all the Reſults that may happen between the Sovereigns, for not executing what they are ordered, and that it appear to the ſaid Serjeant what is hereby ordered; and that he fulfil his Obligation with that Zeal, Love and Conduct he ought. This Order is given in this Garriſon and royal Fort of St. Philip, Bacalar, this 22d of February, 1764. JOSEPH ROSADO.

I the Serjeant Dioniſius Chavaria, certify, that the above is a true Copy of the Order I received this Day from the Commandant Don Joſeph Roſado.

Jo. MAUD,
JA. GRANT, DIONISIUS CHAVARIA,
STEPHEN ARCHBOLD.

To his Excellency William Henry Littleton, Eſq; Governor and Captain General of the Iſland of Jamaica, and other the Territories thereunto belonging, Chancellor and Vice Admiral of the ſame, &c. the humble Petition of the principal Settlers on the Bay of Honduras, for cutting of Logwood, and the Commanders of Veſſels now lying there to load.

Humbly ſheweth,

THAT your Petitioners, by Virtue of the Preliminary Treaty of Peace (in the XVIth Article whereof it is ſtipulated, That the Subjects of his Britannick Majeſty, ſhall have the Privilege of cutting and carrying away Logwood in the Bay of Honduras, with Liberty to build Houſes and Magazines, neceſſary for themſelves and Families) in the Month of April laſt Year, came down here for the aforeſaid Purpoſe of cutting Logwood; and on their firſt Arrival, diſpatched a Letter to the Commandant of Bacalar, being the neareſt Spaniſh Settlement; who returned for Anſwer, That he would tranſmit it to the Governor and Captain General of the Province of Jucatan; whoſe Orders on the Subject, he, the ſaid Commandant, communicated to your Petitioners, which was, to comply entirely with the XVIth Article of the Preliminary Treaty of Peace. That afterwards, by Virtue of a Letter from the ſaid Governor of Jucatan, No. 1, in the Anſwer to a Letter from Joſeph Maud, one of your Petitioners, a Copy of which is No. 2, ſeveral of your Petitioners went into Rio Hondo, to cut Logwood; and from that Time unmoleſted followed their Occupations, till the 4th of this Inſtant February, in good Harmony and Correſpondence with the Spaniards, by frequent Letters from the Governor of Jucatan, and Anſwers by Joſeph Maud, one of your Petitioners, all hereunto annexed; at which Time, Don Joſeph Roſado, Commandant of Bacalar, delivered the ſaid Joſeph Maud, one of your Petitioners, the Letter from the Governor of Jucatan, aforeſaid, No. 3, ordering your Petitioners to retreat to Balis, till they produced either a Schedule from his Catholic Majeſty, or Orders from the King of Great Britain, to authoriſe them to cut Logwood. In Conſequence whereof, your Petitioners, with all poſſible Diſpatch, endeavoured to withdraw their Effects to the New River and Balis, in both which Rivers your Petitioners had formerly Settlements. But on the 23d Inſtant they were again diſturbed, by an Order from the Commandant of Bacalar, directed to the Serjeant of the Guard at the Mouth of Rio Hondo, an authentic Copy of which is likewiſe annexed, No. 4; by which, your Petitioners are ordered to evacuate every River except Balis, where it is admitted them to ſtay a little while; but, as your Petitioners believe, not to have the Privilege of cutting Logwood even there; that your Petitioners are thereby driven to the greateſt Diſtreſs, not having any Plantations to maintain themſelves and Families; that by Means of ſo total a Stagnation of Buſineſs, many of your Petitioners, and Commanders of Veſſels, that have lain for ſome Time here, are in the greateſt Danger of wanting Proviſions; that they have diſpoſed of their Cargoes to your Petitioners, the Settlers, who, by Reaſon of being driven from their Occupations, are incapable of paying for them; and that the Veſſels lately arrived, not ſeeing any Proſpect of immediate Payment, refuſe to ſell their Proviſions. Theſe are the Miſeries your Petitioners experience from the Inhumanity of the Spaniards. And your Petitioners likewiſe humbly repreſent to your Excellency, That not having any legal Authority for ſettling Diſputes with each other, they find themſelves reduced to a State of Anarchy and Confuſion; nor have the Injured any Method to ſeek Redreſs. That your Petitioners humbly apprehend, that without Order it is impoſſible for any Community long to ſubſiſt.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray, That your Excellency will be pleaſed to grant them ſuch Relief as their own diſtreſſed Circumſtances require, and your great Wiſdom ſhall direct. And your Petitioners ſhall ever pray."

Since our laſt William Autenreith, one of the unhappy Men under Sentence of Death, confeſſed the Robbing of Mr. Clifford's Houſe, for which he was condemned; told where the Plate was hid under Ground, in a Lot the upper End of Second-ſtreet; and carried Mr. Clifford, and others, to the Place, when it was all found---The Time of their Execution, we hear, is fixed for Saturday next.

This Collection has paſſed through the Hands of ſome Gentlemen of acknowledged Taſte and Judgment in this City; from whoſe Countenance and Advice this Publication is humbly propoſed to the Public. And as neither Pains nor Coſt will be ſpared, to render Satisfaction, it is hoped that ſufficient Encouragement will be given to execute the Deſign. To gratify the Reader's Curioſity, a ſmall Specimen is annexed (extracted from an Epiſtle to a Friend, from Fort Henry, dated Auguſt, 1758) from the occaſional Poems; ſelected chiefly, as a direful Viciſſitude of Events has made it, in a Meaſure, applicable to the preſent Times.

SPECIMEN.

If in this Wild a pleaſing Spot we meet
In happier Times ſome humble Swain's Retreat;
Where once with Joy he ſaw the grateful Soil
Yield a luxuriant Harveſt to his Toil;
Bleſt with Content, he lov'd the Solitude,
And knew his Pleaſures, tho' of Manners rude.
The lonely Proſpect ſtrikes a ſecret Dread,
While round the ravag'd Cott we ſilent tread!
Whoſe Owner fell beneath ſome ſavage Hand,
Or rowes a Captive on yon hoſtile Land;
While the rich Fields, with Ceres' Bleſſings ſtor'd,
Grieve for their ſlaughter'd or their abſent Lord!

Subſcriptions are taken in by D. HALL, RIVINGTON and BROWN, W. DUNLAP, H. MILLER, and at the Bar of the London Coffee houſe, in Philadelphia; by RIVINGTON and BROWN, in New-York; and by Mr. JOHN ROBINSON, Merchant, in Wilmington, North-Carolina.

For the ENCOURAGEMENT of MINING.

WHEREAS it hath been, and ſtill continues, a great Uncertainty with Numbers of Gentlemen concerned in the Buſineſs of Mining, to fix upon any particular Spot to begin their Operations, that will be ſure of ſtriking on the Vein or Body of Ore under Ground at the firſt Trial, and very often have miſſed it intirely, and perhaps at a very little Diſtance on one Side or the other---For Remedy whereof I have, after infinite Labour and Pains, diſcovered, to my Satisfaction, the certain Means whereby any Vein or Body of Ore, of any Kind of Metal whatſoever, may be found; and that the true Turnings and Windings of ſaid Veins may be traverſed exactly above Ground, in the ſame Manner as Nature has formed them below, by Virtue of the attracting Quality with which Nature has wonderfully ſtored every different Kind of Metal; for every particular Kind of Metal has an Attraction peculiar to itſelf, therefore different Inſtruments muſt be uſed for each Sort of Metal, viz. Gold, Silver, Copper, Lead and Iron; and as theſe Kinds of Metals, or eſpecially the Copper, Lead and Iron, abound very plentifully in this Country, I have ſupplied myſelf with every Kind of Inſtrument neceſſary for the Diſcovery thereof; wherefore I purpoſe hereby to inform any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, that has any Inclination of ſearching after thoſe vaſt Riches, which lay treaſured up in the Bowels of the Earth by the All-wiſe Providence for Man's Uſe, and as they are hid by natural Means, ſo by natural Means they are moſt likely to be found, therefore I am willing, and hope to become an uſeful Inſtrument or Key in his Hands, to unlock the Doors of many Millions, for the Benefit of Mankind. And that every Perſon may be convinced of my Integrity herein, I will neither aſk any Fee or Reward, until my Employer or Employers are ſatisfied themſelves that I have done them Service, or until they come to the particular Vein or Body of Ore, which I may hereafter deſcribe to them. As this Advertiſement is publiſhed with Deſign to ſerve the Publick, if any Gentlemen ſhould have an Inclination to be further informed about the Matter, they may hear of me by enquiring at the Houſe of Iſaac Fitzrandolph, Tavernkeeper, in Bethlehem, Weſt-New-Jerſey.

TRUSTRAM DAVIES.

REEDY-ISLAND STAGE-BOAT now leaves Philadelphia every Wedneſday, and proceeds to Jacob Gooding's Landing, at Reedy-Iſland, where there is a good Wharff and Store, for the Reception of Goods, and good Accommodations for Paſſengers; from thence a Waggon goes every Friday and Saturday to Frederick-town, in Maryland, where a Stage-boat, kept by Mr. John M'Duff, ſets off for Annapolis, in Maryland, every Saturday Evening, and returns to Frederick-town on Thurſdays; the Reedy-Iſland Stage boat leaves Gooding's Wharff for Philadelphia every Saturday Afternoon. There is ſcarce 20 Miles of Land Carriage between Reedy-Iſland and Frederick-town, the Road exceeding good, and the Rates of each Carriage will be low; Goods will be ſent with Care and Diſpatch to almoſt any Part of Maryland, as low as from the Heads of the Creeks. As every one that knows the Situation of Reedy-Iſland, and Frederick-town, muſt be convinced this is the moſt convenient certain Communication yet eſtabliſhed between the two Bays, doubt not it will meet with Encouragement. Great Care will be taken (by the Subſcribers) that both Boats and Waggons ſhall be well and carefully attended.

WHereas an Advertiſement was inſerted in the Pennſylvania Gazette, No. 1842, ſigned Griffith Owen, charging the Subſcriber with obtaining from him (the ſaid Griffith Owen) a Power of Attorney, in a fraudulent Manner, declaring ſaid Power of Attorney void, and forewarning all Perſons againſt paying any Regard to it------Theſe are therefore, for the Vindication of my Character, to aſſure the Publick, that the ſaid Griffith Owen is at preſent, and was then, wholly incapable of framing any ſuch Advertiſement; and that the Power of Attorney lodged in my Hands was drawn at his Deſire, and ſigned by his own Hand, in the Preſence of three creditable Witneſſes; two of whom have ſince proved ſaid Power of Attorney upon Oath, and farther declared, that, to the beſt of their Knowledge, he was fully capable then of tranſacting ſuch an Affair. Said Griffith Owen having been reduced to great Weakneſs of Body, and being in this Condition neglected, and otherwiſe unkindly treated by one of his Sons and Daughter-in-Law, I was ſolicited earneſtly by himſelf, and ſome others of his Children, to remove him to my Houſe, that he might be with his Daughter, who is my Wife. Soon after which, being incapable of going abroad, and managing the Affairs of his Eſtate, he conveyed to me the above mentioned Power of Attorney---- Some Time after this he was deprived of the proper Uſe of his Reaſon, and ſometimes of the Power of Speech, and in this Condition was of late forcibly removed from my Houſe by his Sons, and they, animated by a Spirit of Malice and Reſentment, framed and publiſhed the above-mentioned Advertiſement; and as it is well known to be falſe and ſcandalous, and may tend to injure my Character in Places where I am not known, I have thought proper to take this publick Notice of it; and as my Power of Attorney is good and valid, and has been obtained in a legal Manner, I deſire all Perſons concerned forthwith to come in, and pay off their reſpective Debts, otherwiſe they may expect to be dealt with according to Law. JARED IRWIN. * 7/6

NOtwithſtanding all the meaſures taken by the Government, the ſcarcity of corn is ſtill very great; the people are forced to uſe Turkey corn, the price of which is riſen one half. In the country, the ſcarcity is ſtill greater than in town, and has occaſioned ſeveral inſurrections, particularly at Avellino, where they were obliged to ſend to the neighbouring towns for aſſiſtance to quell the populace.

In the night of the 19th inſt. a great part of a hill, conſiſting wholly of rock, at the diſtance of eighteen miles from this city, parted from the reſt, and fell down. The ſame night a heavy rain, joined to the water which was probably lodged in the cavities of this hill, waſhed away two villages ſituated on the declivity of it, and above 150 perſons periſhed. At the ſame time the water ruſhed into the town of Caſtellamare, which lies at the foot of the hill, and roſe in ſome places to the heighth of fourteen feet. Many of the Inhabitants ran out, and went on board the veſſels in the harbour, where they remained till daylight, under the greateſt apprehenſions for their houſes and effects. Several warehouſes and other buildings were laid under water.

Mentz, Feb. 10. The waters of the Rhine, the Mayne, and the Taubre, continue to overflow the neighbouring countries; and the ſame diſaſter prevails in the countries of Bamberg, Wurtzbourg, and in all the reſt of Franconia. The waters of the Moſelle have alſo made great havock, and have undermined a great rock near Remiſch, a ſmall town four leagues above Treves, in ſuch a manner, that there is an opening in the rock of 20 feet wide; and if it ſhould happen to fall, it would not only cruſh the town, but ſtop up the navigation of the river.

Since our laſt we have been favoured with the following further Matters of Fact, relating to Indian Affairs, from above, to wit; That Captain Johnſon had returned to Johnſon-hall about the Firſt Inſtant, the Enemy having abandoned the whole Country near the Saſquehannah, ſhortly after the firſt Loſs they had ſuſtained. Captain Montour, with 100 Indians, is gone for Niagara, in order to ſecure the Carrying-Place, and Veſſels, from any Attempts of the Enemy, the Miſſiſagues, and others, having lately threatened it; and the Loſs of the Convoys at preſent, being of too much Importance not to be prevented.---The greateſt Part of the Six Nations are only waiting the Motions of the Troops, in order to join them, and proceed on the Expedition.---Their Appearance with the Army will, it is reaſonably ſuppoſed, awe any of the diſtant Nations who may have been diſpoſed to renew the War.

The GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province is now ſitting here.

On Saturday laſt William Autenreith, John Williams, and John Benſon, were carried from the Goal of this City to the Place of Execution, where the two firſt were executed, purſuant to their Sentence; but Benſon was reprieved under the Gallows, Autenreith having cleared him of the Robbery for which he was convicted, by confeſſing that he alone robbed both Mr. Clifford's and Mrs. M'Call's Houſes.----They all behaved as became Men in their unhappy Circumſtances; but Benſon, in particular, ſeemed to be prodigiouſly affected, not knowing any Thing of his Reprieve till the others were turned off, having gone through all the Solemnity of that diſmal Scene, being blind-folded, tied up, as he imagined, and about to ſtep into Eternity with them.---His Concern, it was thought, was the greater, as all along, we hear, he flattered himſelf with being ſaved, always declaring his Innocence of the Crime for which he was ordered to die; but his Behaviour in going to, and at the Tree, ſhewed that he had loſt all Hopes of that Kind.

Extracts from the Tragedy of the PRINCE OF PARTHIA.

CURIOSITY.

Curioſity's another Name for Man,
The blazing Meteor ſtreaming thro' the Air,
Commands our Wonder and admiring Eyes,
With eager gaze we trace the lucent Path,
'Til ſpent at length it ſhrinks to native Nothing.
While the bright Stars, which ever ſteady glow,
Unheeded ſhine, and bleſs the Worlds below.

AMBITION.

Who like the Phœnix gazes on the Sun,
And ſtrives to ſoar up to the glorious Blaze,
Should never leave Ambition's brighteſt Object,
To turn and view the Beauties of a Flow'r.

INGRATITUDE,

Ingratitude,
Thou Hell-born Fiend, how horrid is thy Form!
The Gods ſure let thee looſe to ſcourge Mankind,
And ſave them from an endleſs Waſte of Thunder.

A NOBLE CAPTIVE.

Oh! why did I
Survive the fatal Day? to be this Slave;
To be the Gaze and Sport of vulgar Crouds?
Thus like a ſhackl'd Tyger ſtalk my Round,
And grimly low'r upon the ſhouting Herd.

SILENT ADORATION.

How ſhall I thank you, ye bright glorious Beings!
Shall I in humble Adoration bow,
Or fill the Earth with your reſounding Praiſe?
No; this I leave to noiſy Hypocrites,
A Mortal's Tongue diſgraces ſuch a Theme.
But Heav'n delights where ſilent Gratitude
Mounts each aſpiring Thought to its bright Throne,
Nor leaves to Language ought; Words may indeed
From Man to Man their ſev'ral Wants expreſs,
Heav'n aſks the purer Incenſe of the Heart.

Deſcription of a TEMPEST.

Terror indeed! it ſeems as ſick'ning Nature
Had giv'n her Order up to gen'ral Ruin;
The Heav'ns appear as one continued Flame,
The Heav'ns appear as one continued Flame,
Earth with her Terror ſhakes! dim Night retires,
And the red Lightning gives a dreadful Day,
While in the Thunder's Voice each Sound is loſt.
Fear ſinks the panting Heart in every Boſom;
E'en the pale Dead, affrighted at the Horror,
As tho' unſafe, ſtart from their marble Goals,
And howling thro' the Streets are ſeeking Shelter.

Of a BEAUTIFUL WOMAN.

See Pleaſure's Goddeſs deigns to dignify
The happy Scene, and makes our Bliſs complete.
So VENUS from her heav'nly Seat deſcends
To bleſs the gay CYTH'RA with her Preſence.
A thouſand ſmiling Graces wait the Goddeſs,
A thouſand little Loves are flutt'ring round,
And Joy is mingled with the beauteous Train.

Subſcriptions are taken in by D. HALL, RIVINGTON and BROWN, W. DUNLAP, H. MILLER, and at the Bar of the London Coffee houſe, in Philadelphia; by RIVINGTON and BROWN, in New York; and by Mr. JOHN ROBINSON, Merchant, in Wilmington, North-Carolina.

We hear from Paris, that the Marquis de Montalembert has invented a method of contriving common chimneys into ſtoves, without deſtroying their uſe as chimnies. They are ſo contrived, as to heat eight rooms by the ſame fire if neceſſary, and may be uſed either as ſtoves, or common fire-places, by only pulling a ſtring reſembling ſuch as are fixed to bells. NEW-YORK, May 21.

The following Extracts from the Detroit may be depended on as authentick, viz. Detroit, Jan. 4, 1764.

"A few of the Saggana Indians, that never yet took up Arms, have lately been here, and had Liberty to trade for Cloathing, &c. but had very little Peltry with them, not knowing whether they ſhould obtain that Liberty or not. Flour is now bought here at 40 Livres per Cent. and Beef at 16 Sols, per lb. There is very little of either now taken into the King's Stores, having a Year's Proviſion of Flour in the e long ſince, and ſtill enough in the Country. Moſt of the French begin to dread that the next Blow from the Indians will be upon them in the Spring, and are therefore living upon, and diſpoſing of many of their Cattle. Tho' we have not now any Trouble from the Indians, there are ſtill Spies in the Settlement, who inform their worthy Fathers (a reſpectful Name they give the French) that there are great Numbers of their dear Children aſſembled in all the Hunting Villages around: I imagine this is only a Scheme of the French, to keep us in the Fort."

Detroit, Jan. 6, 1764.

"There is now ſuch plenty of Proviſion, and Firewood in the Fort, that they refuſe to take in any more: There has been 40 Chippaway Indians here from Saggana-Bay, who held a Conference with the Commandant Col. Gladwin, and are gone home extremely well ſatisfied with the Treatment they met with from the Engliſh in general in the Garriſon."

Detroit, March 25, 1764.

"Col. Gladwin has permitted a few of the Saggana Indians to trade here two or three Times. About 12 Days ago, ſeveral Scalping Parties of the Poutewatamies came to the Settlement, killed and wounded ſeveral of the French Cattle, with ſome belonging to the Garriſon; and after ſculking about five or ſix Days, went off, ſince which have heard nothing of them. We now ſleep in our Clothes, expecting an Alarm every Night. We are informed, that the Carrying-Place at Niagara will be beſet very early in the Spring by the Indians: This I take to be the Reaſon why the French Merchants here want to purchaſe all the Goods out of the Engliſh Stores, in Hopes that no more will be got here this Year."

We learn, by ſome Gentlemen juſt arrived from Detroit, That all was well there, on the 11th of April laſt.

PHILADELPHIA.

A MESSAGE from the GOVERNOR to the ASSEMBLY.

GENTLEMEN,

THE Adjournment of your Houſe, immediately on the Delivery of your Meſſage of the Twenty-fourth of March laſt, deprived me of the Opportunity of anſwering it till your preſent Meeting; and as I am not fond of Contention, and was ſincerely diſpoſed to cultivate Harmony and a good Underſtanding with you, I am very ſorry that the unwarrantable Freedom, with which you have treated not only my Character, but thoſe of the Proprietaries themſelves, and the unfair State which I apprehend you have made of the late Diſpute between us, reſpecting the Supply Bill, will not now ſuffer me to let that Meſſage paſs unnoticed.

As Facts are ſtubborn Things, and Truth does not ſtand in Need of any Colouring or Diſguiſe, nothing more is neceſſary, in order to ſet the Controverſy between us in its true Light, than to take a ſhort and ſummary Review of the Tranſactions which gave Riſe to it.

In the Year 1760 an Act of Aſſembly of this Province, by which Supplies were granted to His late Majeſty, was declared, by the King in Council, to be fundamentally wrong and unjuſt, in Six ſeveral Articles, and therefore about to be repealed.----Upon this Mr. Franklin (now a Member of your Houſe) and Mr. Charles, who were your Agents in England, ſolemnly engaged, on the Part of the Aſſembly, that the Houſe ſhould, by a new Bill, amend the ſaid Act, and make it conformable to the written Articles in the Report of the Lords of the Council, if His Majeſty would be graciouſly pleaſed to ſuffer the Act to remain unrepealed.----Confiding in this Engagement, the King ſuſpended the Repeal of the Act, and the Agents ſigned a Stipulation, entered in the Council Books, of the Import abovementioned. Till the preſent Bill made its Appearance, the Aſſembly never would agree to comply with the Stipulations of their Agents, as to any one of the Articles in the Decree, notwithſtanding they were frequently preſſed to it by my Predeceſſor.----At length you thought proper to make your late Bill correſpond with four of the ſaid Articles, and ſtrenuouſly inſiſted that you had inſerted in it the true Senſe and Meaning of the other two alſo. In this I was ſo unfortunate (or, as you ſeem to think, criminal) as to differ in Judgment with you.----On conſidering the two Articles of the Decree, the Words of which I at firſt conceived, and yet am of Opinion, are ſo clear and explicit, as not poſſibly to admit of a double Conſtruction, and comparing them with your Bill, I found you had explained away the Meaning of them, by a Clauſe directly contrary to the plain Import of the Terms made uſe of by the King in Council. As a Colour and Pretence for ſo ſtrange a Conduct, you were happy enough to diſcover, "that Laws and Ordinances, though compoſed by the wiſeſt Men, in Councils and Parliaments practiced "in uſing the greateſt Clearneſs and Preciſion, are ſometimes "found to contain Obſcurities and Uncertainties, and that every "thing human is ſubject to Imperfection;" and conclude modeſtly, with making the Application to the controverted Articles in the Decree, which you contend require Additions and Explanations to be made to them by you, to reconcile them to common Juſtice and Honeſty.----Give me Leave here, Gentlemen, to aſk you a few Queſtions;----Were not learned Counſel employed, and fully inſtructed, by the Agents aforeſaid, on the Part of the Aſſembly, to advocate the Supply Bill of the Year 1759?----Were not thoſe Counſel twice fully heard, both before the Lords of Trade and the King and Council, antecedent to the Decree?---- Did not the Agents underſtand the Force and Meaning of the ſtrong and expreſſive Words of the ſecond and third Articles, previous to their ſigning the Stipulation above mentioned?----If they entertained a Notion that they were ambiguous, why did they not then object to them, when they might have had their Doubts removed upon the Spot?----As your Houſe is principally compoſed of the ſame Members now, as have been the Repreſentatives of the People of this Province for many Years paſt, why were not the Objections lately made againſt thoſe Parts of the Decree pointed out and urged to Mr. HAMILTON, as Reaſons for not coming into the Meaſure, when he repeatedly ſolicited you to comply with the Stipulations of your Agents?----A Controverſy on thoſe Points then, would have been productive of none of the fatal Conſequences which now threaten us, as other Means than thoſe of a Land Tax were fallen on to raiſe Supplies, and the Matter, long before this Time, would have been ſettled on the other Side of the Water.----On the contrary, why have theſe Objections been treaſured up, and kept in Reſerve, till this critical Period, when we daily expect a Renewal of the Incurſions of the Savages on our Frontiers, and our back Inhabitants muſt be left deſtitute and defenceleſs, an eaſy Prey to their Enemies, without Supplies are raiſed for their Protection?

As to the Equity and Juſtice of the Decree, I ſhould think I juſtly ſubjected myſelf to the Charge of offering the higheſt Affront to, and flying in the Face of, that ſupreme and auguſt Judicatory who pronounced it, were I to enter into any Arguments with you in Support of it. It will not, I preſume, be denied, that the King in Council has a legal and conſtitutional Power of judging, and finally determining, the Fate of all Laws paſſed by the Legiſlature here.----They have exerciſed that Juriſdiction on a Bill of a ſimilar Nature with that you lately preſented to me, and have laid down certain Rules in their Decree, on which others ought to be framed for the future.

You will excuſe me in ſaying, that I cannot reaſonably, or with Decency, ſuppoſe that they were either ignorant of the real Merits of the Subject they undertook to judge upon, or that they meant or intended any thing more or leſs than they have been pleaſed plainly to expreſs in their Judgment.

While that Decree therefore remains unreverſed, I am, and ſhall always think myſelf indiſpenſably bound in Duty not to vary from it, though it ſhould, or ſhould not, immediately relate to the Prerogative only. In a former Meſſage I alledged, "that I "knew of no other certain Rule of judging of the Intentions of "another, than by the plain Import of the Words made uſe of "to convey them." But in your laſt Meſſage you are pleaſed to tell me, "that you beg Leave to point out to me another Rule, "and you think a better, which is, that where Words are, by "Conſtruction, capable of two oppoſite Meanings, the one manifeſtly unjuſt and unequal, and the other perfectly conſiſtent "with Juſtice and Equity, you conceive it a good Rule to judge "that the Intention is with the latter." Your Manner of reaſoning in this Inſtance, I confeſs, appears to me as extraordinary as in moſt other Parts of your Meſſage.----The Rule I laid down is expreſly confined to the Caſe where the Words made uſe of are plain and clear; and in order to eſtabliſh a better Rule in its Stead, you ſhift the Queſtion, and ſtate a different Caſe, where the Words are not plain, but ambiguous, and admit of a double Conſtruction.------

To cloſe this diſagreeable Subject, Gentlemen, I comfort myſelf with the ſolid Reflection, that in order to forward His Majeſty's Service, and to avoid further Debate reſpecting the Meaning of the Decree, and facilitate the Paſſage of a Bill ſo neceſſary for the Security of the Province, I have made you the only Propoſal in my Power, conſiſtent with my Duty to the Crown, namely, to inſert in the Bill the very Words of the ſecond and third Articles of the Decree, and let the Aſſeſſors judge of the Senſe of them in the firſt Inſtance, ſubject to the Controul of the Provincial Commiſſioners of Appeals, if they do wrong. The Objections you were pleaſed to make to this were, that the Aſſeſſors of the ſeveral Counties might differ in their Modes of Taxation, or might be equally divided in their Opinion upon the Conſtruction of the Words of the Decree, and ſo no Tax could be laid at all; or even if they ſhould act rightly, the Commiſſioners of Appeals might underſtand the Words in a wrong Senſe, and overthrow every right Aſſeſſment in the Province.----I ſhall only obſerve that, in Support of your Cauſe, you are compelled to carry your Suppoſitions a great Way indeed, far beyond the Bounds of Probability or Reaſon, in a Caſe which appears to me, as I have often ſaid, plain beyond a Doubt.----

As the Abuſe and Obloquy which you have taken the Liberty, with ſo laviſh a Hand, to beſtow on the Proprietaries, in your laſt Meſſage, and the Cenſures you have paſſed on my Conduct (for no other Reaſon, than that I have eſteemed it my Duty to yield Obedience to the Royal Decree) are groundleſs, and without any juſt Foundation, therefore I ſhall paſs them over with the ſilent Diſregard they deſerve. The Rules of good Breeding will always reſtrain me from retorting on you in the ſame Way.----And a ſteady Reſolution to diſcharge the Station I have the Honour to fill, with Fidelity and Juſtice to the good People of this Province, will, I truſt, never ſuffer any Affronts that may be offered me to influence my Adminiſtration, or interfere with the public Welfare.

I cannot conclude, Gentlemen, without once more recommending it to you to conſider, with that Temper and Moderation which is ſo eſſentially neceſſary to public Councils, in what Manner Supplies may be beſt raiſed, not only to anſwer the Purpoſes for which they were demanded by General Gage, at your laſt Meeting, but alſo to keep up a ſufficient Force to guard the Frontiers, and pay the large Arrears already due to the Troops, who have been employed on that Service.

May 17, 1764. JOHN PENN.

We hear from New-York, that by an Expreſs laſt Week from Niagara, there is Advice that all was well there, as alſo at Detroit; but that Lieutenant Colonel Gladwin had cautioned the commanding Officer at Niagara to be on his Guard, leſt the Indians ſhould ſurpriſe them, as they did ſeveral of our Poſts laſt Year, having ſome Reaſon to believe they are gone down to the French, towards Miſſiſippi, for a Supply of Ammunition. It was however hoped, that Sir William Johnſon's intended Treaty with the Indians next Month, will be attended with good Effects.

Saturday laſt came to this Town a Girl about Sixteen Years of Age, that has been a Priſoner among the Indians of the upper Parts of Saſquehannah ſome Years paſt. She relates that they were much concerned about Captain Bull, not knowing what was become of him and his Party, and fearing they were killed.----They had not, it ſeems, heard of this Party's being ſurpriſed and made Priſoners by Sir William's Indians.----She ſays, that there are a great Number of Indians in the Town ſhe was at, and many white Priſoners. That when they heard of the Maſſacre of the Indians at Lancaſter, they were extremely enraged, the Squaws ſcreaming all Night, and tearing their Hair, and the Warriors promiſing them Revenge. That they began to be very croſs to the Priſoners, on which ſhe, and two others, a young Man and Woman, that were Brother and Siſter, projected their Eſcape. And having, for their Subſiſtence on the Way, ſtolen from the Indians ſome of their green Powder, they left them about three Weeks ſince, running all Night, and hiding themſelves in the Day; and that when they came to the Foot of the Hills, the young Man and Woman left her, to go towards the German Flats, and ſhe came forward hither.----She ſays her Name is Sally Wilkins, that ſhe was taken from a Place called Guiney, in Northampton County, about twenty Miles above the Wind Gap. That ſhe had a Brother, who was taken with her, but ſoon got away, and ſhe has not ſince heard of him. The green Powder, ſhe ſays, is compoſed of Indian Meal, ſome dried Roots and Herbs, and a good deal of Salt. That a Spoonful of it a Day is ſufficient for one Perſon, to keep them from Hunger; but it makes them thirſty, and occaſions their drinking a great deal of Water. This Powder, with ſome Roots, found in the Woods, ſhe ſays has been all her Subſiſtence on the Journey, and yet ſhe looks pretty well.

Extracts from the Tragedy of the PRINCE OF PARTHIA.

CURIOSITY.

Curioſity's another Name for Man,
The blazing Meteor ſtreaming thro' the Air,
Commands our Wonder and admiring Eyes,
With eager gaze we trace the lucent Path,
'Til ſpent at length it ſhrinks to native Nothing.
While the bright Stars, which ever ſteady glow,
Unheeded ſhine, and bleſs the Worlds below.

AMBITION.

Who like the Phœnix gazes on the Sun,
And ſtrives to ſoar up to the glorious Blaze,
Should never leave Ambition's brighteſt Object,
To turn and view the Beauties of a Flow'r.

INGRATITUDE,

Ingratitude,
Thou Hell-born Fiend, how horrid is thy Form!
The Gods ſure let thee looſe to ſcourge Mankind,
And ſave them from an endleſs Waſte of Thunder.

A NOBLE CAPTIVE.

Oh! why did I
Survive the fatal Day? to be this Slave;
To be the Gaze and Sport of vulgar Crouds?
Thus like a ſhackl'd Tyger ſtalk my Round,
And grimly low'r upon the ſhouting Herd.

SILENT ADORATION.

How ſhall I thank you, ye bright glorious Beings!
Shall I in humble Adoration bow,
Or fill the Earth with your reſounding Praiſe?
No; this I leave to noiſy Hypocrites,
A Mortal's Tongue diſgraces ſuch a Theme.
But Heav'n delights where ſilent Gratitude
Mounts each aſpiring Thought to its bright Throne,
Nor leaves to Language ought; Words may indeed
From Man to Man their ſev'ral Wants expreſs,
Heav'n aſks the purer Incenſe of the Heart.

Deſcription of a TEMPEST.

Terror indeed! it ſeems as ſick'ning Nature
Had giv'n her Order up to gen'ral Ruin;
The Heav'ns appear as one continued Flame,
Earth with her Terror ſhakes! dim Night retires,
And the red Lightning gives a dreadful Day,
While in the Thunder's Voice each Sound is loſt.
Fear ſinks the panting Heart in every Boſom;
E'en the pale Dead, affrighted at the Horror,
As tho' unſafe, ſtart from their marble Goals,
And howling thro' the Streets are ſeeking Shelter.

Of a BEAUTIFUL WOMAN.

See Pleaſure's Goddeſs deigns to dignify
The happy Scene, and makes our Bliſs complete.
So VENUS from her heav'nly Seat deſcends
To bleſs the gay CYTH'RA with her Preſence.
A thouſand ſmiling Graces wait the Goddeſs,
A thouſand little Loves are flutt'ring round,
And Joy is mingled with the beauteous Train.

ANTIGUA, March 14.

At a meeting of his Excellency George Thomas, Esq; Captain-General and Governor in chief, in and over all his Majesty's Leeward Carribbe Islands in America, and the Council and Assembly of this his Majesty's Island of Antigua, on Thursday, the 16th of February, 1764.

Resolved, THAT every Person that shall import into this Island any Rum, Spirits, Melasses, Sugar, Syrup, or Paniles, of the Product or Manufacture of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, not in the Possession, or under the Dominion of his Majesty; or that shall illegally import into this Island any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes whatsoever; and every Person who is aiding and assisting the Importation thereof, by housing them when landed, lending to the Importers, Carts, Cattle, Negroes, Boats, or any other Assistance whatsoever, is an Enemy to his Country, and an Encourager of our near and most dangerous Rivals the French, as well as the Dutch and Danes, and is unworthy to be a Member of civil Society.

Resolved, That all Costs and Expences of all Seizures made in this Island, of Goods, Wares and Merchandizes, supposed to be clandestinely imported into this Island, which upon a lawful Trial shall be acquitted, and not condemned, shall be paid by the Public of this Island.

Resolved, That every Person who shall inform of, or seize any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, illegally imported into this Island, is a Friend to his Country, and deserves the greatest Encouragement and Countenance.

And whereas, the more effectually to suppress clandestine Trade, an Act made in the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, has extended to the Commanders and other Officers of his Majesty's Ships and Vessels, having Deputations, the same Powers that were given to the Custom-house Officers, of making Seizures: And whereas the preceding Resolutions are confined merely to illegal Importations made in Antigua, when it is apparent that this Island must be equally injured by illegal Importations into Dominica and the other new ceded Islands, of French Sugars, Paniles, Syrups, Rum, and Melasses, which will be thence exported into Great Britain and North-America, as the Produce of the British Islands, to the Diminution of the Prices of the Sugars and other Commodities of our own Colonies, and to the Defrauding his Majesty's Revenue:

Resolved, That if any of the Commanders or Officers of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels, deputed to act as Custom-house Officers, have made any Seizures, and prosecuted the same, or shall make any Seizures, and prosecute the same, in this Island, and such Seizures have been, or shall upon Trial thereof be acquited; the Cost and Expences attending such Seizures and Prosecutions shall be paid by the Public of this island.

Resolved, That if any of the said Commanders or Officers, or any Custom-house Officers of this Island, shall upon Acquittal of any such Seizure be prosecuted by Reason of such Seizure, that whatever Damages shall be recovered against them, the same shall also be paid by the Public of this Island.

By Command,

WILLIAM ATKINSON, Deputy Secretary.

April 18. By a Vessel in a short passage from Bristol we hear, that the Hon. William Young, Esq; and the other Commissioners for the sale of the lands in the new Islands, may be expected here shortly. It is said those lands will be publickly sold in lots of Three Hundred acres, and that great care will be taken to prevent one person's monopolising more than one lot; and that the French inhabitants will be allowed for the buildings and other improvements that are at present upon their Plantations.

By the Ship Prince George, Capt. Hathorn, arrived at New-York from Bristol, we have the following Advices, viz.

TURIN, March 14.

HIS Royal Highness the Duke of York left us on Wednesday last, regretted by the King of Sardinia, and the whole Royal family. His Royal Highness arrived in perfect health the next day at Milan, from whence, after a few days stay, he purposes, we are informed, going to Naples.

Naples, Feb. 4. The dearness of grain still continues; and disorders, in consequence of it, are daily committed even in the capital. Several waggons laden with bread for the soldiery have been pillaged. The means taken to prevent these inconveniencies having been impeded by those who conceal their stock of corn, to sell it dearer as the scarcity increases, the government have given orders for the importation of 200,000 tomoli of that commodity.

Cadiz, Jan. 31. Among other vessels arrived here this month, ten Dutch and English ones were laden with corn for this place, where it is excessive dear, notwithstanding the prospect of a plentiful harvest.

Lisbon, Jan. 24. Ignatius Alvarez de Silva, president of the council of La Relecion, hath been degraded from that dignity in full council, by an order from the King, for malversations.

LONDON, March 28.

The exports of all sorts of merchandize for North-America, was never known to be half so great as at present.

Letters from Franckfort, of the 18th instant, import, that the 7th conference had been held there, and it is assured, that at the next meeting the negotiation touching the capitulation of the King of the Romans, will be concluded.

Capt. Hugh Pallisser, of his Majesty's ship Guernsey, lately put in commission, is stationed at Newfoundland, for the protection of the fishery; and he is also appointed commander in chief of his Majesty's ships on that station.

March 29. A proclamation is published in this day's gazette, for the sale of the lands belonging to the crown, on the islands of the West-Indies which were ceded to us by the late treaty of peace; which lands are to be sold by auction in the month of June next, if the surveys can be made so soon. Each person to pay immediately twenty per cent. of the purchase money; the remainder by different instalments, viz. ten per cent. within the first year of the purchase, ten per cent. more within the second year, and twenty per cent. within every succeeding year, until the whole is paid. That in case of failure of payment of the purchase money, in the manner above directed, the purchaser shall forfeit all right to the lands purchased, &c.

Orders are given for the immediate issuing out Exchequer bills, to the amount of 800,000 l.

We hear the Indians are exceeding fond of our copper money, which they string round their necks, as the Negroes do coarse shells on the coast of Africa, which has lately occasioned commissions for large quantities to be shipped for New-York and Halifax.

Letters from Paris of the 19th inst. say, that the Marchioness de Pompadour lay at the point of death, being given over by her physicians, and that she had received extreme unction and the viaticum, which were administered to her by the King's confessor.

It is said there are 50 English families now ready to embark for and settle in Canada.

During the late transactions of our East-India Company, to which some Dutch Agents in this city have been peculiarly attentive, it is said, regular dispatches have been sent to Holland, with a minute detail of what passed at each meeting; but their disgust and apprehensions have exceedingly been augmented since the report of Lord Clive's going again to India, being afraid that his Lordship's penetration will not fail of bringing to light some extraordinary proceedings in that part of the world.

It is said that his Majesty proposes to set out to visit his German dominions on Monday after Easter week.

'Tis said a noble person has sent his answer to a great Company, that he cannot think of going abroad on any other condition, in the first place, than the removing a certain eminent Gentleman from all manner of power.

BOSTON, May 17.

By Letters from London, we find that the Merchants trading this Way have greatly interested themselves in our American Affairs: They write that our Agent Mr. Mauduit has been indefatigable in his Labours upon this Occasion, but they fear that all their Endeavours will fall short of the Success they hoped for: That divers Affairs, it is added, are now in Agitation in the Parliament which will affect the Interest of the Colonies, against which we are assured the Endeavours of our Friends at Home will be continued to the last.

We hear that the Bill for laying a Duty of Three Pence Sterling per Gallon on foreign Melasses, imported into the Colonies, was resolved upon, and passed the House of Commons the 22d of March last.

Captain Gallise, from Glasgow, spoke with the Pitt Packet, bound Home from New-York, 18 Days ago, which had been out 13 Days.

May 21. A gentleman lately arrived from Surinam, informs, that just before he left that place, certain advice had been received from Berbicia, that by means of the succour they had received, and the distress of the rebellious Negroes, for want of provisions, (which was so extreme, that they were obliged to kill every horse upon the plantations they were in possession of) they had intirely brought them under subjection; but they had almost ruined the settlement by their ravages. Upon this intelligence, a day of public rejoicing was appointed by the Governor, which was celebrated accordingly.

NEWPORT, May 21.

Captain Allen, in 34 days from the Grenades, gives us the following piece of intelligence, viz. That a polacca belonging to some port in England, bound from Gambia to Barbados, arrived off that island the latter end of March last, when the slaves, upwards of 100 in number, unhappily found means to sail upon the crew, and killed the Captain, Mate, and some others, leaving only two men and two boys alive; one of these they placed at the helm, and stood over him with a cutlas, ordering him to steer every morning towards the rising of the sun, lying by the latter part of the day and night. The Negroes chose one of their number as Captain, who having taken the command, and dressed himself in the Captain's clothes, maintained the strictest order, in particular with respect to the allowance of provisions, distributing the same quantity to the white men and boys, as was allowed to the rest. To windward of Barbados a vessel hoisted out a boat, in order to go on board her, which they beat off; and afterwards a vessel from thence was sent in pursuit of her, which proved ineffectual. In about ten days from the Blacks taking possession of the polacca, she was found to be near the Grenades, when a sloop, properly fitted, went in quest of her, which soon came up, and began an engagement, which the Negroes, with swivels and small-arms, maintained with firmness and vigour, till between 20 and 30 of them were wounded, two of whom died. The sloop then ran up and boarded her, when they were obliged to submit, and were accordingly taken and carried into the Grenades. No lives were lost on board the sloop.

NEW-YORK, May 28.

A publick Commencement was holden on Tuesday last, at St. George's Chapel, in this city. The procession from the College Library was headed by the young gentlemen of the grammar school, to the number of 50, with their masters, and then the students of the college, all uncovered. His Excellency General GAGE was pleased to honour the ceremony with his presence, accompanied by several of the members of His Majesty's Council, the Judges of the Supreme Court, the President and Governors of the College, and many of the Clergy and Gentlemen of the city and country. The President having offered up suitable prayers, after relating the occurrences of the preceding year, in an elegant Latin speech, addressed a very pathetic and instructive exhortation to the young gentlemen who were to be graduated. Then followed a salutatory oration, by Mr. Richard Harrison, a young gentleman of seventeen; which was equally admired by the audience for elegance and purity of diction, propriety of sentiment, and the graceful elocution with which it was delivered. To this masterly performance succeeded a spirited and sensible English dissertation on the happiness and advantages arising from a state of Peace, by Mr. John Jay. The audience was next entertained with a dispute in English, on the subject of national poverty, opposed to that of national riches; masterly discussed by Messieurs Jay and Harrison. A syllogistic dispute in Latin, on the question--"An passiones sint indifferentes?" was next handled by Messieurs Van Dyck and Holland, with great precision and Judgment. These performances being ended, the President conferred on the candidates their respective degrees. Mr. Van Dyck then acquitted himself with great honour, in an elegant and pathetic valedictory oration, pronounced with very becoming emphasis and gestures. The whole was concluded with a prayer applicable to the occasion.

The numerous and polite audience expressed great pleasure and approbation at the performances of the young gentlemen, and the order and decency with which every thing was conducted.

The gentlemen who attended the procession, returned in the same order to the College-hall, and dined together in honour of the day.

It would be injurious to the reputation of the College, not to observe, that ample amends were made for the number of candidates, by the display of their proficiency in the elegance of their performances.

When Capt. Hathorn sailed from King Road, the Brig Hope, of and for Philadelphia, lay there; and the Ship Rialto, Capt. Martin, for this Port, was to sail the Day after him.

We hear, that on the 27th of February last, Major Loftus was ordered with the 22d regiment, consisting of about 300 Men, from Mobille, to proceed up the Mississippi, and take possession of the Illinois, 500 leagues distant; that he found the passage up the river very difficult, owing to the rapidity of the current, which retarded their march so much, that they could scarce proceed 10 miles a day; and that on the 20th of March, having only got 70 leagues up the river, their foremost boat was attacked by the Indians, and in a few minutes they had six men killed, and as many wounded; that all the other boats immediately attempted to land, but were also very smartly fired upon; that Major Loftus having a few days before lost 57 men by desertion, not knowing the number of the enemy, and being then at a place called La Loche Davoine, about 400 leagues from the Illinois, thought it impracticable to fulfil his orders, and therefore returned to Pensacola.

Extract of a letter from Montreal, dated May 9.

"As a well-wisher to this continent, I own to you, that I am particularly inquisitive into every step taken by our Commanders and Governors, to punish the blind spirit of rebellion, that has been nursed up in the minds of some unthinking disaffected tribes of Indians, and thereby put an end to the present unnatural war, so hurtful to trade, and the welfare of our fellow-subjects.

"Capt. Clase, the director of Indian affairs in this province, arrived here lately from Johnson-hall. Hearing that a numerous congress of the different nations of Indians settled in this government, was to be held at Cagnawago the 5th instant, in presence of Brig. Gen. Burton, our worthy Governor, I had the curiosity to follow thither, where he went, attended by all the commanding officers of the different corps in the government, and other officers of the garrison. At the approach of his barge, the Indians, who had hoisted up, in several parts of their fort, union flags, and red flags, saluted him with a discharge of pateraroes, and vollies of small-arms. The whole village, men, women and children, shewed the greatest demonstrations of joy at his landing; at which time a company of warriors, with English colours flying, and officers at their head, formed a double file, through which the Governor, attended by Capt. Clase, the Indian director, and other officers, marched, and went to the Council-hall, where, after the usual compliments, I saw with the highest satisfaction the chiefs of the different tribes and nations assembled, take up war belts with great readiness, heartily promising for their tribes to join our Indian friends, so that numbers of them are soon to set off for Sir William Johnson's."

The public are desired to be careful in receiving Pence, as at this juncture there are abundance of the bad kind now current among us.

PHILADELPHIA, May 31.

Yesterday a Law was passed by the GOVERNOR and ASSEMBLY, granting FIFTY-FIVE THOUSAND POUNDS for His MAJESTY's Service.

Since our last the following Particulars came to Hand from Fort-Henry, in Berks County, viz.

"That on the 23d Instant, about One o'Clock in the Morning, the Commanding Officer there received Advice, that the Indians had murdered some White People about three Miles from thence; upon which he ordered an Officer and 15 Men to go to the Place, where they found Jacob Baker's House burnt, his Wife and Sister killed and scalped, and two Boys were missing: That a Son of Casper Schnebeli's, and a Son of Nicholas Wolfe's, were both killed within two Miles of the Fort: That at Day-break he went out with 24 Men, but could see nothing of the Enemy, and by the Badness of the Weather lost their Tracks; but that one of his reconnoitring Parties having discovered six Indians, at about a Mile's Distance, he was going immediately out again in Pursuit of them, with 22 Soldiers, and some Countrymen, who were to take six Days Provision with them: That on the 24th, about Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, a Woman was shot through the Neck by a Party of four Indians, who were pursued, and fired on by some of our People; and that about two Hours after three of the Enemy crossed the Highway, and were also followed and fired at by our Men, but we have no Account of any of them being taken or wounded.-----It is likewise said that the Indians, in their Retreat, met with and wounded several of the Inhabitants badly."
